EASTER-JOY & HOPE

The Gospel of Luke-Chapter 24 in the bible called "The Message" has a sub - title called "Looking for the Living One in a Cemetery." Initial verses Luke 24: 1-8 "At the crack of dawn on Sunday, the women came to the tomb carrying the burial spices they had prepared. They found the entrance stone rolled back from the tomb, so they walked in, but once inside, they couldn't find the body of the Master Jesus. They were puzzled, wondering what to make of this. Then out of nowhere it seemed, two men, light cascading over them, stood there. The women were awe struck and bowed down in worship. The men said, "Why are you looking for the Living One in a cemetery? He is not here, but raised up. Remember how He told you when you were still back in Gailee that He had to be handed over to sinners, be killed on a cross, and in three days rise up? Then they remembered Jesus words." Luke later gives the story of the two walking to Emmaus. The slow, foot-dragging, style of walk.

From the Pastor:

Living through Holy Week is an experience that never gets old. Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives that we celebrate on Palm Sunday was not His first nor His last... but it was different. It was a billboard declaration that He is Messiah/King setting in motion a chain of events that would unleash a powerful backlash of reactions, that would lead to His crucifixion, that would as well as set in motion a more powerful presentation of love and grace than ever has or ever will be offered to humanity, a message that continues to transform lives to this very day.

Jesus would join His disciples for a "last supper" that He confessed was the very longing of His heart, His will and desire to have those moments with them. It was a personal cameo of His heart to His beloved followers, where He would offer not only a covenant meal creating a union of His "family" of followers, but also offer a buffet of discipling mentorship and a demonstration of grace and calling. Like a lovingly prepared sacrificial offering - Jesus would in both word and deed express His offer of love and life as both an expression and offer of His own heart and life to His disciples then and now; it was an example for them to follow as they share the message of the Gospel mercy and life to the world in the future.

Jesus and His small band of intimate followers would take some time in prayer as the darkness enveloped them in the garden on the Mount of Olives. Jesus would prayerfully surrender to His calling, accepting the horrors that would soon begin to unfold over the next hours and through the night. A riot and litany of accusations and lies would lead Him through courts of injustice where other peoples' sins would be piled upon this humble man who refused to defend Himself so He could save even those who hurled abusive accusations that piled their own transgressions upon His bloody and beaten frame.

The power of a humanity's brokenness would lead Him through the streets of their daily existence to a pinnacle beyond the doors of the city where a cross would be his final perch, a public display bearing his bruised and bloodied frame, the life upon which He would bear the cares and sins of the world... mine... yours... every person's.

The song writer put it to verse... "And can it be that I should gain.. An int'rest in the Savior's blood? Died He for me, who caused His pain? For me, who Him to death pursued? Amazing love! how can it be That Thou, my God, should die for me?"

Placed in an empty tomb punctuating the declaration "It is finished!" we would be crushed to think the message of His life was ended. But NO! On the third day a cry that combined all the power of tearful weeping with exultant joy, of sorrowful despair with victorious shouting comes the life-giving truth broadcast by angels, women and men - "He is NOT here! He is Risen!"

There are no words the preacher can speak on Easter morning that can rival the proclamation that your faith and joy - YOUR lives - present to the world - "He is Risen! Because He lives, I can face tomorrow, because He lives, all fear is gone, because I know He holds the future... life is worth the living, just because He lives!" [Con't next page]

[PONDER Easter-Joy&Hope Con't]

When Jesus, unrecognized, joined them and related all that the prophets had told about what would need to transpire and then disappeared. Now recognizing Him they said "Didn't we feel on fire as He conversed with us on the road, as He opened the scriptures for us? Can you imagine the "Joy" they were now experiencing and the rapid rate of their return to Jerusalem to tell the others of their experience "He's Alive!" Maybe they were singing (shouting) this chorus: "I've got the joy, joy, joy, joy down in my heart. Where? Down in my heart! Where? Down in my heart! I've got the joy, joy, joy down in my heart, down in my heart to stay." Frederick W. Faber said, "Only to sit and think of God, oh what a joy it is."

Peter writes in I Peter 3: 15 "But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the "Hope" that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect." Psalm 39: 7 "But now Lord, what do I look for? My hope is in you."

Edward Mote wrote the hymn "The Solid Rock." 1st verse and chorus: "My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness. I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but wholly lean on Jesus' name. On Christ, the solid rock, I stand—All other ground is sinking sand, all other ground is sinking sand."

Romans 8: 24&25: "For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently."

Hebrews 11: 1 "Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see."

WANTED: Where and how will you serve Jesus this year in the ministry of our Congregation? We are all part of the Body of Christ if we have given our life over to Him. To declare Jesus “LORD” is to acknowledge He is LORD of each of us. Perhaps you’ve known someone who has had a stroke or has not utilized a part of their body to its capacity because of some illness or restriction – that part affected by having lost connection with the “head” or the atrophy that has taken place from not being used leaves that treasured part of the body out of commission. Has God been tugging at your heart to serve in some area within the church or out in mission in the community that you have yet to say “yes” to? Is there some area that God’s been speaking to you to be a part of? There are all types of ministries/opportunities that we are seeking to know who God’s been speaking to. For example:

We need people interested in developing a process for securing, training, and engaging people into the various ministries and missions of our congregation. [Our Lay Leadership Team]

Someone interested and able to be trained as future treasurer of our congregation.

Someone interested in New Ministries/Missions God has put on your heart????

Our Mission Giving in 2024

2024 was a very strong year for extra missional giving. JUMC is a congregation that looks beyond itself – reaching out in mission and evangelism to the community and beyond into our nation and even the world. Our various missions share the good news of Jesus while expressing His love and grace by meeting personal, physical, and spiritual needs. Thank you!

Care Coordinator: Thanks for contacting those we don't see in church to let them know we miss them. Calls or cards mean a lot, especially to those who are home bound or in nursing homes. Ellie Artz continues in the nursing home, and would love to hear from you or see you if you can visit. Frank Sebastian is in Pine Valley Nursing Home (formerly Spang Crest). Cards can be sent to his home address, as they can for Lewis Artz, Phil Lenge, Nancy and John Rhen, Doris Crouse, and Bonnie Rickard. They would love to know you're thinking of them. A list of these addresses are on the JOY table in the narthex. All would appreciate knowing you are thinking of them! Don't forget the Care Booklets in the circular rack available for you to take. Since we are all members of a "Care Team", the Care Coordinator will contact members of the church when a need arises to see who can help with a meal or any other need. If you know of a care concern, please contact the Care Coordinator, Pam Gray.

So far in January they served 42 households, and had 32 volunteers. They are open the first and third Tuesdays from 10-12, and Thursdays from 4-7, two Mondays (second and fourth) 10-12, and one Saturday (third) -1:00 a month. 10This Saturday is also Community Shopping Day.
